Friends of the Greenwood Public Library is a 501(c)(3) organization with a record of success and support of the Greenwood Public Library. Your tax deductible membership to the Friends is a great way to support your Library.

At a time when government support of libraries is decreasing, community needs for the Library have increased. To provide for the needs of the future, we are looking beyond tax dollars to assist the Library in bringing continued services to our patrons.

Your membership will enhance our community, and we hope your business opportunities, while assisting the Library with system-wide support for programs and resources.

We hope you will join today and take advantage of these special offers!
