Greenwood Library offers free online tutorials

Lynda.com now available for all GPL Evergreen Indiana cardholders

A new online learning option is now offered at GPL. Lynda.com is an online learning site that hosts a constantly growing library of over 3,000 courses that include over 130,000 videos. Courses cover a variety of topics (including business, design, web development, and multimedia skills) and software (Microsoft Office, Adobe Creative Suite, and open source applications) that can help you pursue personal and professional goals. These courses are delivered by expert instructors and feature searchable transcripts that make it easy to find quick answers to questions.

Anyone with a GPL Evergreen Indiana library card will have access to the full collection of online tutorials.

The library has always been the place to turn to for continuing education, and the staff at GPL is excited to give patrons another way to keep learning even when the library is closed or when they cannot make a visit.

“We are excited to offer Lynda.com for patrons to use 24/7,” states reference librarian Susan Jerger. “They can learn about QuickBooks, animation, coding, Microsoft Office, marketing, and dozens of other topics through 130,000+ video tutorials on Lynda.com...all from the comfort of their own homes. We aren’t able to offer classes on all those topics and the classes we do offer don’t always work time-wise for a patron, so Lynda.com fills a learning gap in our community.”

For access to lynda.com, anyone with a GPL Evergreen Indiana library card can visit the library’s website - www.greenwoodlibrary.us. Users will need their library card number and pin to log in.
