Greenwood Public Library Celebrates NaNoWriMo

Greenwood Public Library (GPL) is once again encouraging the local community to spend the month of November writing. November is National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo), a creative writing project sponsored by the nonprofit www.nanowrimo.org. The goal of NaNoWriMo is to get people of all ages to try to write a novel (50,000 words) in 30 days during the month of November.

GPL will be celebrating NaNoWriMo with weekly write-ins and a Halfway Party on November 15th. The Halfway Party will feature local author Sandra Mitchell who will provide a pep talk to keep NaNo participants going for the rest of November.
