Books:

The Anglo-Boer War: The Road to Infamy, 1899-1900 by Owen Coetzer – 968 COE A reassessment of the controversial Natal campaign of the Boer War, this book analyzes contemporary sources using previously unpublished reports and letters. It describes the actions of the campaign and discusses the roles of Warren, Roberts, Buller and White, questioning many long-established "official" views of this campaign.

African World Histories: Colonial Africa, 1884-1994 by Dennis Laumann – available via Evergreen Indiana*

Presents a balanced, accessible, and comprehensive overview of how Africans experienced European colonial rule and provides both a continental overview and specific regional examples, exploring the period in a thematic and chronological way.

The Scramble for Africa: White Man's Conquest of the Dark Continent from 1876 to 1912 by Thomas Pakenham – available via Evergreen Indiana*

This account of the conquest of Africa by five European powers describes the explorers, politicians, merchants, military men, and others who subjugated Africa through commerce, Christianity, and colonialism.

The Ottoman Scramble for Africa: Empire and Diplomacy in the Sahara and the Hijaz by Mostafa Minawi – available via hoopladigital.com*

This book turns the spotlight on the Ottoman Empire's expansionist strategies in Africa and its increasingly vulnerable African and Arabian frontiers. Author Minawi redefines the parameters of agency in late-nineteenth-century colonialism to include the Ottoman Empire and turns the typical framework of a European colonizer and a non-European colonized on its head.

Podcasts:

A Condensed History of Rhodesia by Stuff You Missed in History Class – https://tinyurl.com/y9ahxfgg

In 1888, Cecil Rhodes and John Smith Moffat duped the king of the Ndebele people into a treaty which led to the expansion of British territory in Africa. From then until the late 1900s, Rhodesia was governed by a white minority.

The Yaa Asantewaa War of Independence by Stuff You Missed in History Class – https://tinyurl.com/y8j9umvs

The Asante-British war of 1900 capped about 100 years of war between Great Britain and the Asante Empire, which occupied part of what is now Ghana.
