How to Access Your Email Account

Launch the web browser, if it isn't open already. Do this by clicking on Internet Explorer, Firefox, or Google Chrome icons on the desktop.

Then, type one of the following URLs in the address bar, depending on where you created your email account.

For Gmail, type:

www.gnai.com

Enter your username and password, then click "Sign In." Your email will be displayed by sender and subject-line. Click on one to display the full text.
