Harry Potter Alliance plans event to help Johnson County Humane Society

Greenwood Library's HP Alliance offers an afternoon of fun

Greenwood Public Library's (GPL) Harry Potter Alliance chapter is offering an afternoon of family fun to support the Johnson County Humane Society on Saturday, August 17th. Fantastic Beasts and How to Help Them will feature fun activities such as face painting, yard games, and a pet costume contest. HP Alliance will also be collecting donations that day for the Humane Society.

The Harry Potter Alliance was created to change the world by making activism accessible through the power of story. Since 2005, millions of fans have offered their time and talents to work for equality, human rights, and literacy around the world.

GPL's chapter – The Greenwood Burrow – is focused on building a community of older teens and adults who love the Harry Potter novels and movies and are interested in being a force of awesome in our local community. Anyone interested in learning more or joining the Greenwood Burrow can learn more at www.greenwoodlibrary.us/hpalliance.
