Greenwood's kick-off to the holiday season

Greenwood Aglow returns to Greenwood Public Library

Greenwood Public Library (GPL) is excited to present this year's annual holiday celebration for Greenwood- Greenwood Aglow - on November 17th from 4pm to 7pm. Thanks to our great sponsors (Friends of Greenwood Public Library; DeBoor Realty; Edward Jones – James Reisert, Financial Advisor; Old National Bank; Johnson County Community Foundation), the carriage rides are free of charge as well as the LIVE animal shows featuring Silly Safaris and their real live reindeer. Photos with Santa are only $1 per photo. There will be a family-friendly craft, coloring, food to purchase from the Kiwanis Club of Greenwood, and a family photo booth

"Greenwood Aglow has become a tradition for many of our families," says Jane Weisenbach, Director of Development at GPL. "We are excited to present this fun-filled event that brings the whole family together for a free night to kick off the holiday season! With Santa, reindeer, and Christmas caroling – it doesn't get any better than that!"

Plus, the city of Greenwood will host the first annual Kris Kringle Market. Holiday booths, bonfire, sweet treats, and giveaways will be available in the city lot just west of the Greenwood Public Library during Greenwood Aglow.
